

DESIGNATED PERSON ASHORE (DPA)

Course aim and objectives: The ISM Code requires shipping companies carrying out the technical management and operation of ships to appoint a designated person ashore for effective monitoring of the company's safety management system. The course provides participants with the knowledge for being able to take over the DPA's responsibilities in compliance with the ISM Code and IMO MSC-MEPC.7/ Circ. 6 "Guidance on the qualification, training and experience necessary for taking over the role of the Designated Person under the provisions of ISM Code".

Course main elements:

- ISM Code requirements
- Effective implementation of a Safety Management System
- Mandatory rules and regulations
- DPA's authority and responsibility
- Verification and monitoring of safety and pollution prevention activities
- The link for communications between company management and ships
- Safety issues, training and drills
- Practical exercises, workshops and final examination

Course participation: The course is open to shipping company managers, superintendents, and senior shipboard members with experience in shipping company fleet technical and operational matters who have been or will be assigned the duties of the company's DPA. The course is also an excellent refresher for personnel already assigned with the responsibilities and duties of the company's DPA
