

AWARENESS & COMPLIANCE

WITH THE MARITIME LABOR CONVENTION (MLC 2006)

Course aim and objectives: This course provides shipping company operators with knowledge for complying with the revised requirements of the Maritime Labor Convention (MLC 2006). The Convention's prime focus is on seafarers' rights while working and living on a ship but equally on the responsibilities of shipping companies and flag states. Emphasis is also placed on how companies should handle and resolve crew complaints and deficiencies for non-compliance.

Course main elements:

- History and structure of the Convention
- Responsibilities and guidance according to MLC requirements
- Inspection and MLC certification process
- Resolution of deficiencies
- Crew complaint handling
- Amendments to the MLC Convention
- Inspections by flag and port state
- Practical exercises and final examination

Course participation: The course is open to shipping company DPAs, Quality, Safety, HR, Crew, Operations, Technical and Training managers, superintendents with relevant responsibilities as well masters and senior shipboard members.
