

STCW REQUIREMENTS AND COMPETENCY SEAFARER STANDARDS

Course aim and objectives: IMO's International Convention on the Standards of Seafarer Training, Certification and Watchkeeping (STCW) regulates the minimum requirements on training, certification and watchkeeping arrangements. In 2010, the Convention was amended to standardize inconsistent training of seafarers and ensure competencies are duly assessed for all ship personnel. The course familiarizes participants with the goals, provisions and application of the amended Convention with emphasis on the key requirements.

Course main elements:

- History, scope and structure of the Convention
- Overview of STCW 2010 Manila Amendments
- Training, Certification & Watch-Keeping requirements
- Company Responsibilities
- Competency Assessments for enhancing safety performance
- Implementation and compliance
- Workshops and practical exercises

Course participation: The course is open to shipping company HR/Crew managers, quality, safety, operations managers, superintendents and generally office employees and senior ship members who need to understand how to best comply with the Convention's amended requirements
