

DYNAMARINE SERVICES

Management Systems Ongoing Support for Continual Improvement

Scope of service: This service is provided for updating and upgrading a company's existing management system and promoting continual improvement by aligning the system with regulatory and industry standards through ongoing support on technical and marine management issues

Criteria: This service is provided within the following criteria:

- Upgrading of the safety management system through gap analysis in accordance with TMSA, ISO, SIGGTO requirements
- Review of vessel's operational activities and prioritizing risks
- Development of risk assessment database
- Review of existing procedures and development of revisions for enhancing controls
- Review and analysis of external reports and findings for identifying repeated gaps and trends and preparation of corrective actions
- Development of statistical tools and database
- Preparation of management reviews and action plans for implementation
- Benchmarking and monitoring of company's performance vis a vis Major Oil Company SIRE Vetting Inspection results,
- Benchmarking and monitoring of company's performance vis a vis Flag, RO, RSO, PSC Inspection and Class Survey results
- Realigning KPIs and providing ad hoc training for enhancing behavioral based safety
- Conducting ISM/ISO/ISPS/MLC internal audits
- Conducting navigational safety and pre-vetting inspections
- Human element audits with reference to competence criteria of regulatory and industry standards
- Organizing table-top exercises and emergency response drills
- Ongoing company support system services