

Business Ethics for Maritime Professionals

Course aim and objectives:

Shipping companies engaged in international maritime activities and operations should comply with basic principles in the form of a code of conduct leading corporate social responsibility, business policies and practices, decision making and protecting the company against potentially undesired consequences.

Course main elements:

- Principles and characteristics of business ethics
- Requirements for setting an ethical business framework
- Advantages of implementing an ethical business framework
- Corporate management values leading a code of conduct
- Promoting a safe and productive work environment
- Reviewing maritime related issues
- Practical exercises, case studies and final examination

Course participation:

The course is open to shipping company managers, superintendents, senior office and shipboard members with responsibilities for organizing and setting a safe and sound ethical business framework

Course duration: 1 day

This training program is currently provided in 6 hours with real time instruction through a dedicated e-platform in 2 three-hour pre-scheduled interactive web-based learning sessions.